LAWRENCE E. TILLSON IV

Web Developer

ABOUT LAWRENCE

Lawrence is a current student in Humber College's Web Development Program. Prior to attending Humber, he had no experience in coding whatsoever. Through hard work and an eagerness to learn, he has become fairly proficient. In Lawrence's free time he likes to learn languages, human and computer, and plays video games.

SPECIALIZATION

Most of Lawrence's education has focused on JavaScript, PHP, HTML5, CSS3, SQL, and C#. He would like to specialize in PHP.
